

Other Divisions of Liberation Business School

Liberation Business Education Division offers several unique courses and programs that are both flexible and comprehensive. These courses range from 3 day workshops (Basics of Business Management) and 6 month weekend programs (Diploma in Entrepreneurial Excellence) to the 18 month Masters Program (Masters in Family Business Management) for the sons and daughters of business owners.

Liberation Business Coaching Division has several panelists who have successfully managed businesses and whose guidance is sought by industries all over the world. These business coaches mentor the business owner on strategies to maximize productivity and organizational effectiveness in terms of Sales, Marketing, Finance, HR, Procurement, Legal, CSR, Technology, Expansion and Diversification among others.

Liberation Management Outsourcing Division helps the business owner to move from a person-centric organization to a process-centric organization. This division focuses on Organizational Development and Transformation by diagnosing, designing and implementing processes including Documentation Management, Sales & Marketing Management, Organizational Restructuring, MIS, Human Resources Management, Financial Management, Administration and others.

Liberation Training & Development Division has hundreds of trainers from all over the country spanning several industries who conduct customized training programs and motivational seminars to ensure that not only the business owner, but also his / her team is geared up for growth and success. The training is imparted keeping in mind the unique characteristics of the business and includes industry related case studies, roles plays, films, discussions and debates that promote experiential learning, personal growth and professional success.

Liberation Learning Systems is committed to making available Text Books, Mini-Books, VCDs, DVDs, ACDs, Training Modules, Presentations, Workbooks, E-Books, and other learning tools and resources that facilitate learning. Each tool is simple and comprehensive and covers critical points of the subject matter in a form that is easy-to-understand. This division also creates content for trainers, corporate presentations, websites, brochures and other marketing and training initiatives.

“Energize...

Enable...

Empower...”